MOTION OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD TO WITHDRAW ITS MOTION FOR A STAY OF DISCOVERY

The National Labor Relations Board respectfully moves to withdraw its prior motion for a stay of discovery in the above-captioned case, and shows as follows:

1. On January 22, 2018, the NLRB moved for a stay of discovery in this case because the attorneys responsible for the case had been on indefinite furlough, beginning on January 20, 2018, as part of the partial shutdown of the federal government due to a lack of appropriated funds (Dkt. 59).

2. On January 22, 2018, after the NLRB filed the motion to stay discovery, Congress passed and the President signed a Continuing Resolution that provided temporary funding to the Board and ended the furlough.

3. Based on the brevity of the partial shutdown of the federal government, the NLRB moves to withdraw its motion to stay discovery, allowing discovery to proceed unabated.

WHEREFORE, the Board moves to withdraw its motion for a stay of discovery in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
